REINHOLTZ WILL ATTEND ART EDUCATORS' MEETING

Richard B. Reinholtz, chairman of the University of Montana Art Department, will represent Montana at a curriculum improvement meeting in Washington, D. C., Sept. 20-24, according to Dean Charles W. Bolen of the School of Fine Arts.

The meeting, sponsored by the National Art Education Association, is the first in a series called to develop a nationwide philosophy and structure for art education from grade school through college. The curriculum sessions are scheduled in conjunction with a meeting of state art education association presidents, which Reinholtz will attend as president of the Montana group.
